Australian Tour Guide Code of Conduct

An accredited Tour Guide will abide by the Australian Tour Guides' Code of Conduct as set out below:

1. To provide a professional service to visitors – professional in care and commitment, and in providing an objective understanding of the places visited – free from prejudice or propaganda.
2. To ensure that every effort is made to present true and accurate facts and ensure that a clear distinction is made between truth and stories, legends, traditions or opinions.
3. To act honestly, fairly and professionally in all dealings with those who engage the services of guides and with colleagues working in all aspects of tourism.
4. Ensure that guided groups treat with respect the natural, cultural and heritage environments, and minimise impacts on these at all times.
5. As representatives of Australia, I will welcome visitors and act in such a way as to bring credit to the country and promote it as a tourist destination.
6. Regularly update and upgrade my guiding skills and knowledge, through training and professional development activities.
7. Declare to customers any relevant personal commercial interests, including commissions, and never force visitor purchases or solicit tips.
8. Be mindful at all times of duty of care and other health and safety issues.
9. Provide all goods and services as presented in the tour itinerary and promotional material.
10. Abide by all national, state and territory legislation governing the operation and conduct of tours, tour operators and tour guides.
11. Be aware that GOA has a Complaints Handling Policy that covers issues that may be brought to our attention in relation to accredited tour guides.
12. It is a requirement for accredited tour guides to establish a Complaints Handling procedure.
